

“Peacock”

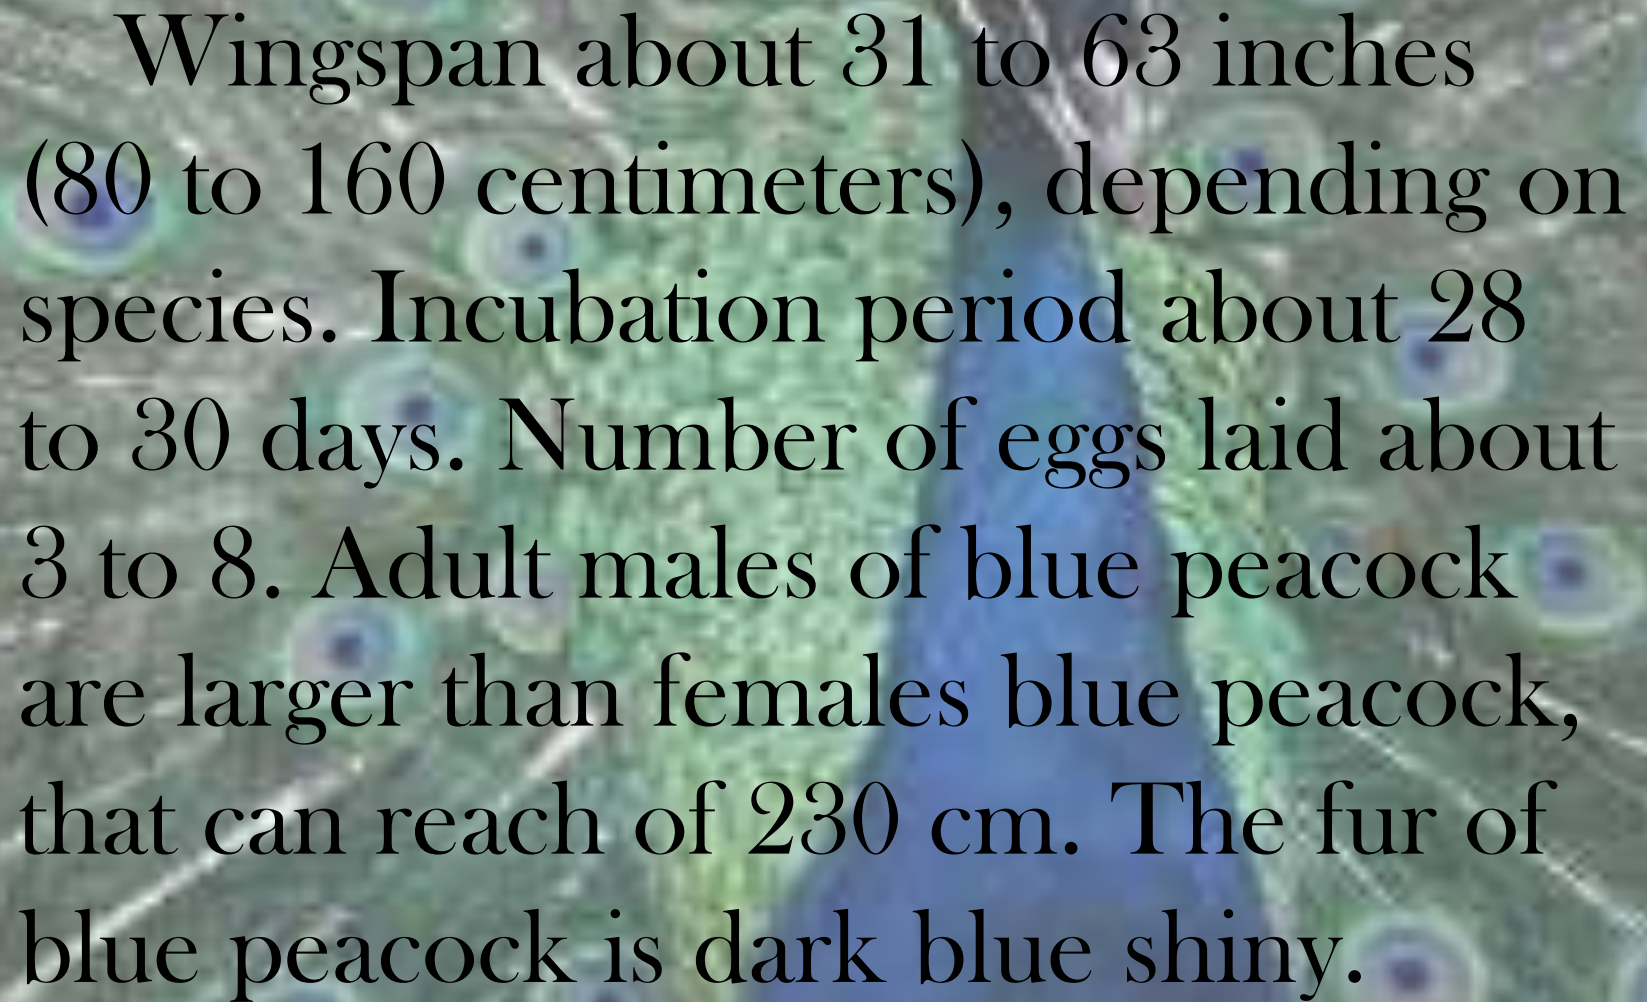

A blue peacock is shown in a forest setting, with its tail feathers fanned out in a large, circular display. The feathers are a mix of blue, green, and brown, with many small, iridescent spots. The background is a dense forest of green trees and foliage.

Peacock is the largest bird that can fly, one of its species namely blue peacock or indian peacock or Pavo cristatus.

Blue peacock Classified of Aves, blue peacock's population scattered in open forests with grasslands in India, Pakistan, Sri Lanka, Nepal and Bhutan.

Blue peacock is warm-blooded animals, have wings, chest hair and blue crest. Peacock toothless beak. Size of blue peacock about 27 to 51 inches (70 to 130 centimeters) long, depending on species, males are larger. Weight about 2.6 to 13 pounds (1.2 to 6 kilograms), depending on species.

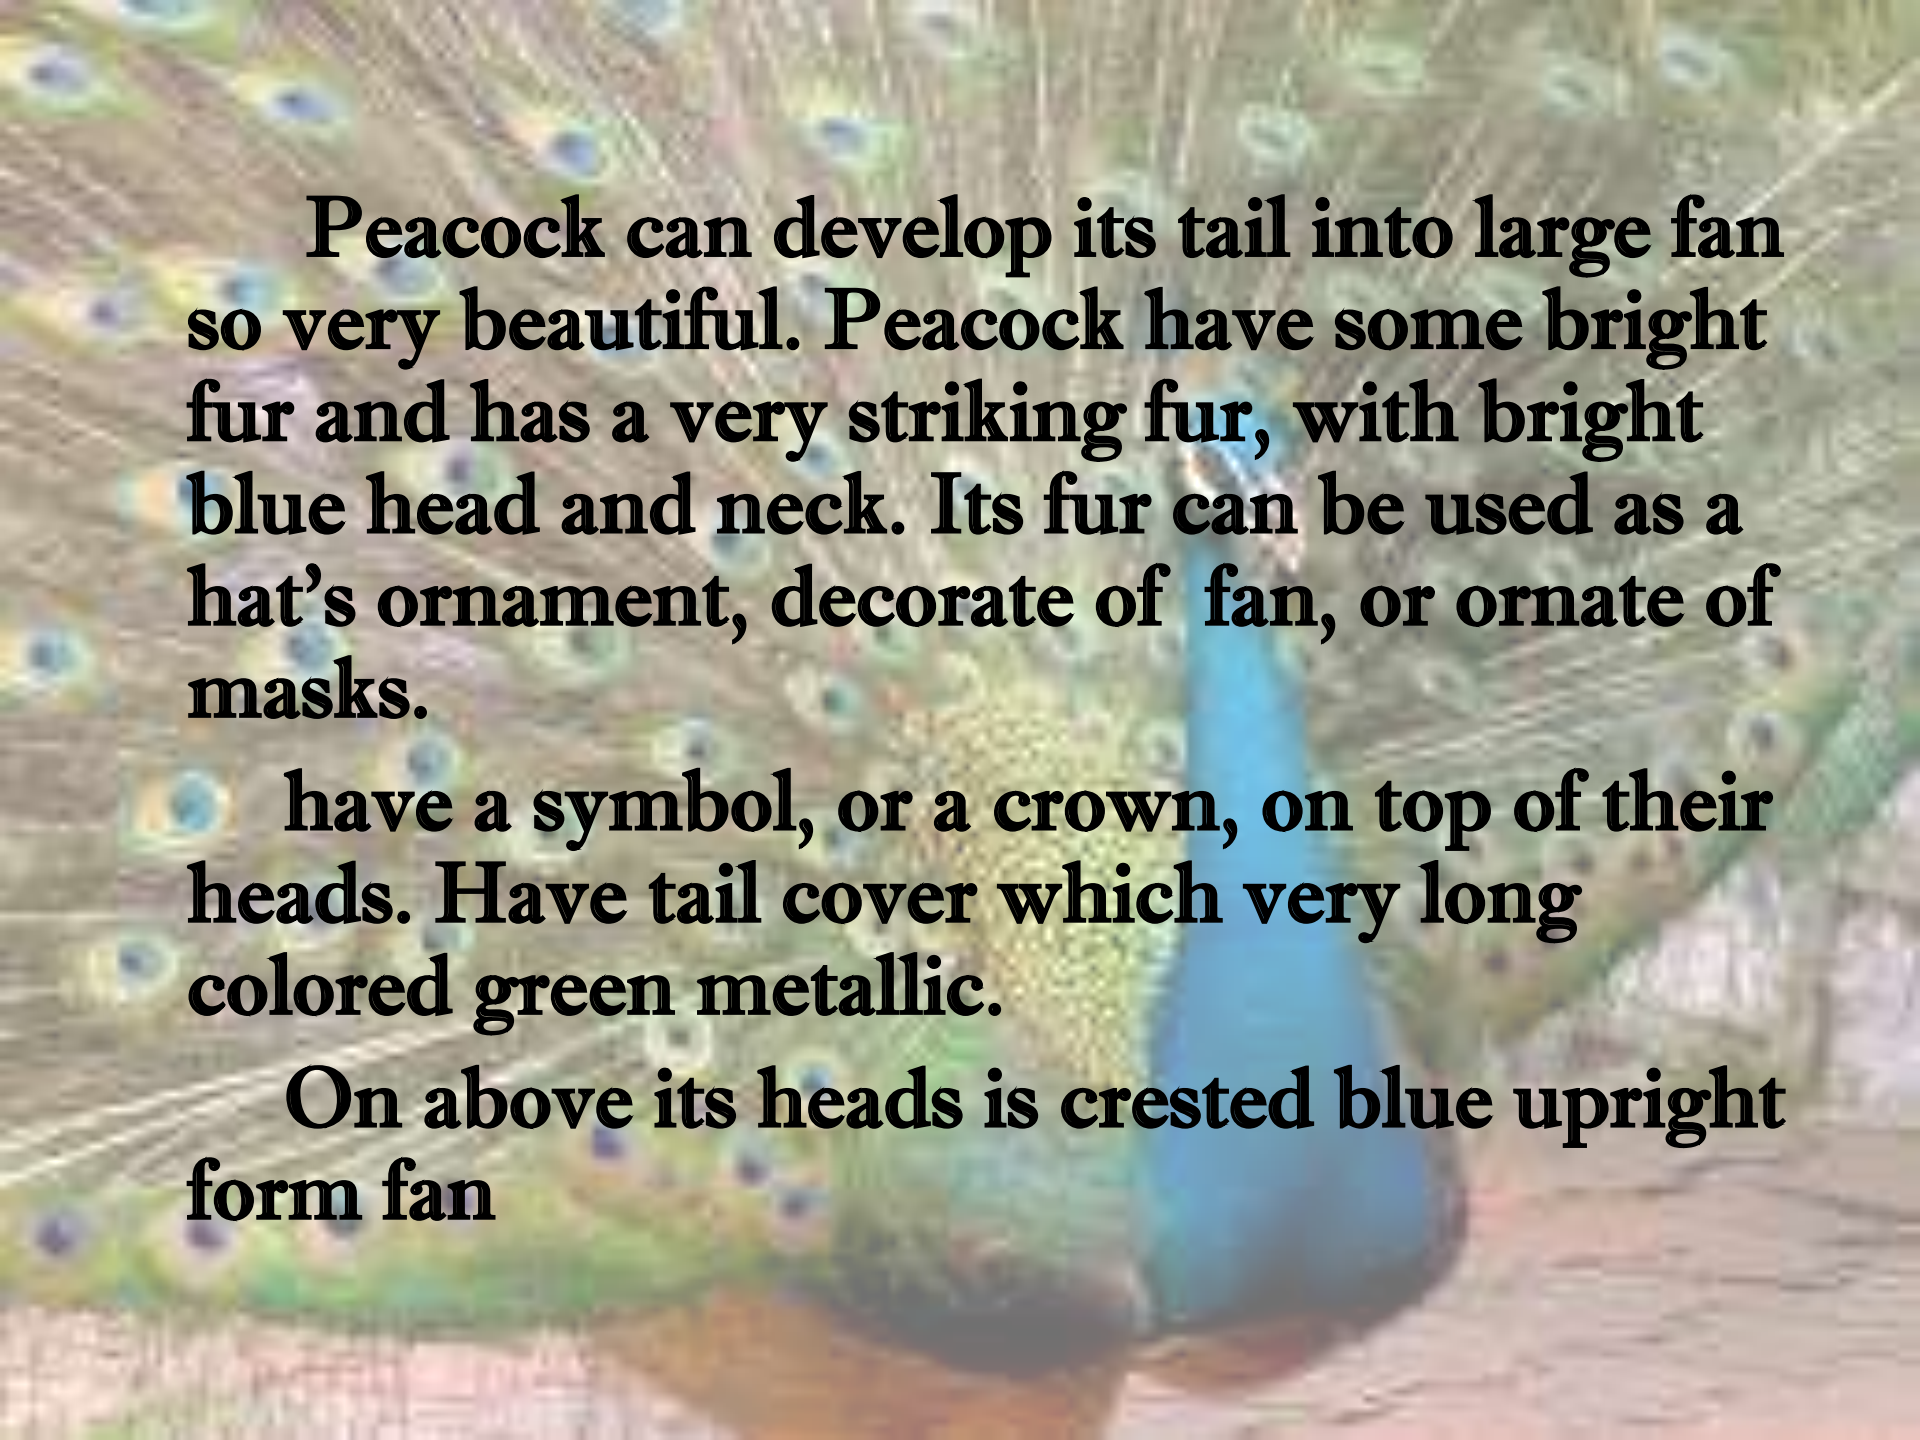

Wingspan about 31 to 63 inches (80 to 160 centimeters), depending on species. Incubation period about 28 to 30 days. Number of eggs laid about 3 to 8. Adult males of blue peacock are larger than females blue peacock, that can reach of 230 cm. The fur of blue peacock is dark blue shiny.

A blue peacock is shown from a rear perspective with its tail feathers fanned out. The feathers are a mix of iridescent blue, green, and gold, with many 'eye' patterns. The text is overlaid on the upper left portion of the image.

Blue peacock can live about 15-20 years. Blue Peacock are omnivorous and eat most plant parts, flower petals, seed heads, insects and other arthropods, reptiles, and amphibians.

Blue peacock can run, walk, and jump.

Peacock can develop its tail into large fan so very beautiful. Peacock have some bright fur and has a very striking fur, with bright blue head and neck. Its fur can be used as a hat's ornament, decorate of fan, or ornate of masks.

have a symbol, or a crown, on top of their heads. Have tail cover which very long colored green metallic.

On above its heads is crested blue upright form fan

