

What Do These Animals Do In Winter?

Click on each picture in order to read about that animal in winter.

Arctic fox

Snowshoe rabbit

Caribou

Brown Bear

Bat

Squirrel

Frog

Arctic wolf

Geese

Snowy owl

Whale

Butterfly

Winter is very cold.
Snow is on the ground.
Animals can't find food.

Animals can _____.

Migrate

Hibernate

Use camouflage

Arctic Fox

In winter, an Arctic fox's fur turns white to blend in with the snow.

Arctic foxes CAMOUFLAGE.

Keep Going

Arctic Wolf

In winter, an Arctic wolf's fur turns white to blend in with the snow. Arctic wolves CAMOUFLAGE.

Keep Going

Snowy Owl

In winter, a snowy owl's feathers turn white to blend in with the snow. Snowy owls CAMOUFLAGE.

Keep Going

Snowshoe Rabbits

In winter, a snowshoe rabbit's fur turns white to blend in with the snow. Snowshoe rabbits CAMOUFLAGE.

Keep Going

Geese

In winter, geese fly south to warmer weather. Geese MIGRATE.

Keep Going

Whales

In winter, whales swim south to warmer water. Whales MIGRATE.

Keep Going

Caribou

In winter, caribou travel to warmer places. Caribou MIGRATE.

Keep Going

Butterflies

In winter, butterflies fly to warmer places. Butterflies MIGRATE.

Now it's time for a sorting activity.

Squirrels

In winter, squirrels fall into a deep sleep until spring time. Squirrels HIBERNATE.

Keep Going

Bears

In winter, some bears fall into a deep sleep until spring time. Some bears HIBERNATE.

Keep Going

Bats

In winter, bats fall into a deep sleep until spring time. Bats HIBERNATE.

Keep Going

Frogs

In winter, frogs fall into a deep sleep until spring time.
Frogs HIBERNATE.

Keep Going

Now It's Your Turn

Sort the winter animals into the boxes below.

↳ Hibernates

↳ Migrate

↳ Camouflage

